We know it’s going to be a busy winter in the backcountry. Let’s do our part to make it a safe, fun & memorable one.

Backcountry Pledge

Practice Humility and Respect
Have fun, but not at the risk of harming people, wildlife, or the land.

Think About the Consequences
Stay out of ski terrain that could impact the highway if there is any chance of triggering a slide.

Be a Responsible Dog Owner
Leash my dog in the parking areas and along the road; Scoop the poop.

Carpool and Be Patient
Park tight and wait my turn for a parking spot without impeding traffic flow.

Spread the Word
Thank the WYDOT crew and those I see doing the right thing; say something to those being unsafe or irresponsible.

6’ Please
Backcountry Travel Checklist

☐ Do you have a plan & know the area and the rules?
☐ Do you have avalanche training?
☐ Do you have BackcountrySOS on your phone?
☐ BackcountrySOS.com
☐ Did you check today’s AVY & weather forecasts?
☐ Did you do a beacon check at the trailhead?
☐ Did you pack the essentials?

BTAC Avalanche Forecast

Backcountry Portal

The Essentials